

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of media control
gone awry.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the
airwaves, we get more of what's good
for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy.

I urge you to review
swiftly the legality
of Sinclair's
actions and to prevent the airing
of this propaganda.
Clearly, the media
ownership rules need
to be strengthened,
not weakened, in order to foster a
media that represents a plurality of opinions.

Thank you.
